

About Paper Cops

Paper Cops was founded by Wayne Williams, a committed public servant who dedicated over 30 years of his life not only to his community, but his country as well.

He began his career in the US Navy, serving three active-duty tours in the United States and overseas. After leaving the Navy, he began his law enforcement career as a correctional officer in a maximum security facility.

Officer Williams then joined a major metropolitan police department working as a foot officer walking the beat in several high-crime neighborhoods. After working as a patrol officer and in several specialized units, he was promoted to detective and assigned to the Major Crimes Investigation Division. In all, Officer Williams dedicated over two decades to protecting and serving communities and identifying and analyzing methods to achieve a safer society.

Throughout his career, Officer Williams learned first-hand that involved citizens are critical to fighting crime. Drawing on his extensive experience in various levels of law enforcement, he has written several books that educate citizens to be more active and prepared members of their communities.

To learn more about Paper Cop, call (855) 345-COPS (2677) or email info@papercops.com.

P.O. Box 1211, Owings Mills, MD 21117
(855) 345-COPS | (855) 345-2677
www.papercops.com

CITIZEN — action — BOOK

An Anti-Crime Solution for Concerned Citizens

Citizen Action Book

A Revolutionary Anti-Crime Tool for Citizens Who Are Willing to Make a Difference

Designed specifically for law abiding citizens who care deeply about the safety of their families, neighbors, and communities, the Citizen Action Book offers a revolutionary crime prevention tool for people who are willing to make a difference.

Designed for Responsible Citizens Who Care About Their Communities

As our nation's crime rate soars exponentially, law-abiding citizens understand that we have a responsibility to deter crime in our own communities by working hand-in-hand with law enforcement agencies.

The Citizen Action Book helps residents document pertinent information to assist officers in keeping our community safe. This vital resource delivers critical knowledge such as:

- What to do - and not do - about suspicious individuals and vehicles around your home and business
- How to properly document community problems, including reporting issues to responsible parties, governmental agencies, and police departments
- How to work in tandem with law enforcement by using the same crime documentation techniques police officers use
- Holding first responders to a higher standard by documenting and rating their appearance and work performance

Easy-to-Use, Effective Anti-Crime Tool

The Citizen Action Book provides residents with a handy, easy-to-use tool to identify and accurately record crime information so it can be easily shared with law enforcement. The book is very easy to use; just fill in the blanks.

Topics Covered in the Citizen Action Book

Community Meetings - Document time, location, and issues important to your neighborhood

Suspicious Transportation - How to accurately identify vehicles and other modes of transportation that are involved in questionable or illegal activities, which could be key to solving crimes

Suspicious Individuals - How to identify individuals who are participating in suspicious and unlawful activities, including properly and accurately documenting suspects' physical descriptions

Community Problems - How to identify, track, and abate existing community problems, including identifying the individuals or agencies responsible for creating them

Monitor Crimes in Your Community - Document and maintain pertinent information on suspects and crimes that occur near your home, business, and your children's school

Witness or Victim of Crime - How to respond if you are a witness to or a victim of a crime, including detailed step-by-step information on documenting the crime

Police Misconduct - Learn about citizens' rights, the do's and don'ts when accosted by police officers, and how to document pertinent information required when you are a victim or a witness of police misconduct.

Service Requests - How to document and rate the appearance and work performance of first responders and public workers

Definitions - Definitions for words and terms that are commonly used by law enforcement officers and the judicial system

